

FAMILY, CONSUMER, AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT Scholarships

Application Deadline for all Scholarships is February 1, 2017

1. The department requires that all undergraduate recipients take a minimum of 12 credit hours.
2. It is expected that all recipients write a thank-you letter to the donor. A copy is to be attached to their acceptance letter and kept on file.
3. It is also expected that all recipients attend a reception held to honor the donors as well as the scholarship recipients.
4. Preference will be given to students who will be Juniors or Seniors during the award year for the undergraduate scholarships.

Edna Hatch Baker Endowment

Edna had a great love for children and concern for their well-being. For this reason she established this scholarship to help prepare young people to become better parents, or teach in high school. The recipient of this scholarship should demonstrate academic achievement, financial need, and personal integrity. Recipients must be either Family, Consumer, and Human Development majors or Family Consumer Sciences majors.

Emily Elder Barrus Scholarship

The Emily Elder Barrus Scholarship in the Department of Family, Consumer and Human Development will be used to support scholarships for students with a focus in Child Development. The scholarship award will be based on merit, a minimum grade point average of 3.0 and preference given to need.

Joan F. Budge

Family, friends, and colleagues established this scholarship to assist future generations of students in Family, Consumer, and Human Development. Joan was the Administrative Secretary in the College of Family Life Dean's Office at the time of her death. Recipients of this scholarship should demonstrate financial need, personal integrity, and average academic achievement.

Jean Chandler Christensen Scholarship

Recipient must be a junior or senior enrolled in the Family and Consumer Science major of the FCHD Department and show financial need, personal integrity and have academic promise. Recipient must have a GPA of at least 3.0 and must demonstrate financial need.

Margaret Fleming Coleman Scholarship

This scholarship was established to assist future generations of students in the Family, Consumer, and Human Development Department. Candidates for this scholarship should be re-entry students, those demonstrating true desire to achieve, or students with financial needs.

Glen & Kathylene Jenson Scholarship

Recipients of Glen & Kathylene Jenson Scholarship will be awarded to students majoring in Family, Consumer, and Human Development. Recipients of the scholarship must demonstrate financial need and maintain a 3.0 gpa, or students with special circumstances who have the potential to succeed, but do not have a 3.0 GPA, and has shown leadership abilities and service to others.

Marilyn Kruse Scholarship

This scholarship is for first-generation college student.

Family Life Alumni Scholarship

Recipients of this scholarship must be majors in the Department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development, and show financial need, personal integrity and have academic promise.

William H. and Stella Young Griffiths Scholarship

Recipient must be in the upper 25% of the class in the majors of the field of Family, Consumer, and Human Development. Preference is given to blood relatives of Mrs. Griffiths in these majors.

Edith Nyman Gunnell Scholarship

Recipients of this scholarship will be selected from students in the Department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development who show financial need, personal integrity, a 3.2 gpa, and academic achievement.

Jessie Ruth Malin Harris Scholarship

Recipients of this scholarship must be majors in the Department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development; preference will be given to students who, are themselves, disabled; maintain a 3.0 gpa.

Phi Upsilon Omicron Endowment

Recipients of this scholarship must be majors in the Department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development; be a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron Honor Society; and show financial need and personal integrity.

Harriet Ann Richards Rasmussen Scholarship

Candidates must have a focus of study in child development or family related studies. The award will be made based on merit, with preference given to need.

Marie Stowell Shoup

This award will be given to upper class women majoring in FCS or FCHD in the Family, Consumer, and Human Development Department. Recipient shall have a "B" GPA or better and show financial need. The scholarship was established by her husband and their daughters.

Helen Lower Simmons

Recipients of this scholarship must be a major in the department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development and show financial need, and personal integrity.

Phyllis R. Snow Memorial Endowment

Recipient must be a major in the department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development. The recipient must also demonstrate financial need and academic achievement.

Ila Smith Taggart

This scholarship was established by Spencer L. and Ila Smith Taggart to assist future generations of students at Utah State University. Recipients must be majors in the FCHD Department and should demonstrate academic achievement and financial need.

Gregory Carl Trevers Memorial Endowment

Recipients of this scholarship will be selected from students in the Department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development who demonstrate superior potential, quality academic achievement, personal integrity, and a high sense of social responsibility. This scholarship was established by Cherie and Mercer Trevers and Loretta Trevers.

Helen Maughan Walker

Recipients should be a junior or senior enrolled in Family, Consumer, and Human Development. Recipients should also demonstrate academic achievement and show financial need. They should have the desire to further their careers using their skills and educations from their degrees.

Dr. Dale & Adele Christensen Young

This scholarship was established by Dr. Dale and Adele Young to assist students in the department that demonstrate superior potential, quality academic achievement, financial need, personal integrity, and a high sense of social responsibility.

Graduate Scholarships

Dr. Don C. Carter Graduate Scholarship

This scholarship is in recognition of Dr. Carter's professional excellence in both child development and family relations. Applicants must be matriculated graduate students majoring in Family, Consumer, and Human Development and shall have demonstrated an exemplary scholastic record and potential for making an outstanding impact in the field of child development and family relations.

Brent C. and Kevon C. Miller Graduate Scholarship

This scholarship was established by Kevon and Brent Miller to support students in the Department of Family, Consumer and Human Development, where Brent served as a faculty member and department head. Recipients shall be selected from graduate students in the department whose specialization is marriage, family, or adolescent development, and who demonstrate academic achievement, and personal integrity.

Phyllis R. Snow Graduate Scholarship

Recipients of this scholarship will be selected from graduate students in the Department of Family, Consumer, and Human Development who show qualities of leadership and good character, capability and potential to contribute in the field. First consideration will be given to a woman who has initiated work or is already working toward a doctorate degree in the field of FCHD.

Leah D. Widtsoe Scholarship

Established by Dr. Virginia Cutler in honor of Leah D. Widtsoe. Recipients of this fellowship must be majors in the FCHD department and should demonstrate high academic achievement, professional promise, personal integrity, and high sense of social and moral responsibility. Recipients must be seniors ready to begin their graduate work in our department; or graduate students who are continuing graduate work in the department; or graduate transfer students wanting to register in our department.