Grades

Candidate grades and grade point averages

We feel this is a valid measure of our candidates' mastery of program content.

Scores on standardized tests

Candidate scores on standardized license or board examinations

This is a valid measure of our candidates' knowledge using national norms.

Candidate scores on undergraduate and/or graduate admission tests of subject matter knowledge and aptitude

This is a reliable and valid indicator of the candidates' capacity to successfully engage in the academic rigors of the program.

Standardized scores and gains of the completers' own students

K-12 students are not assessed on content knowledge presented by their school counselor using standardized assessments.

Ratings

Ratings of portfolios of academic and clinical accomplishments

School Counseling students do not create portfolios.

Third-party rating of program's students

Ratings by both practicum and internship onsite, level 2, Utah "Highly Qualified" school counselors provide reliable and valid assessment of candidates' skills.

Ratings of in-service, clinical, and PDS teaching

Ratings by both practicum and internship onsite, level 2, Utah "Highly Qualified" school counselors provide reliable and valid assessment of candidates' skills.

Ratings, by cooperating teacher and college / university supervisors, of practice teachers' work samples

Ratings by both practicum and internship onsite, level 2, Utah "Highly Qualified" school counselors provide reliable and valid assessment of candidates' skills.

Rates

Rates of completion of courses and program

Provides insight into student engagement and successful completion of program curriculum.

Completers' career retention rates

We again administered the Employer Survey and analyzed data to provide career retention rates. Findings are reported in Appendix E of this report.

Completers' job placement rates

This is a valuable indicator of school district and administrator satisfaction level with our graduates. This data is reported on the CEHS website on "Current Employment" tables.

Rates of completers' professional advanced study

Not a reliable indicator of program quality.

Rates of completers' leadership roles

We do not consider this to be a valid nor reliable measure of our graduates' level of professional capacity.

Rates of graduates' professional service activities

We do not consider this to be a valid nor reliable measure of our graduates' level of professional capacity.

Case studies and alumni competence

Evaluations of completers by their own pupils

This information is not available.

Completer self-assessment of their accomplishments

We have an item on our graduate survey asking respondents to self-assess their skills and competencies. We plan to explore this data to determine whether this analysis provides meaningful data.

Third-party professional recognition of completers (e.g., NBPTS)

A new credential in college and career readiness education for school counselors is being developed by the Utah State Office of Education. Our graduates will be able to pursue this certificate.

Employers' evaluations of the program's completers

Ratings by employers provide reliable and valid assessment of our graduates' knowledge and skills. Findings of the 2017 Employer Survey are found in Appendix E of this report.

Completers' authoring of textbooks, curriculum materials, etc.

We do not consider this to be a valid nor reliable measure of our graduates' level of professional capacity.

Case studies of completers' own students' learning and accomplishment

Not available.

¹: Assessment results related to TEAC Quality Principle I that the program faculty uses elsewhere must be included in the Brief. Evidence that is reported to the institution or state licensing authorities, or alluded to in publications, Web sites, catalogs, and the like must be included in the Brief. Therefore, Title II results, grades (if they are used for graduation, transfer, and admission), admission test results (if they are used), and hiring rates (if they are reported elsewhere) would all be included in the Brief.

B. Provide an update of the program's data spreadsheet(s) or data tables related to the program's claims.
