

DR. BETH FAUTH

Professor of Human Development & Family Studies, Director of the Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia Research Center, USU

Dr. Elizabeth (Beth) Fauth is a professor in the Human Development and Family Studies program in the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services at Utah State University. Dr. Fauth recently became the director for the new Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia Research Center (ADRC) at USU. She received her doctorate in Human Development and Family Studies from The Pennsylvania State University. Fauth recently became the director for the new Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia Research Center at USU. Dr. Fauth studies stress related to dementia caregiving, and assesses caregiver interventions, most recently an online self-guided ACT intervention. She also examines ways to support quality of life for persons living with dementia.