

Coaching – Certificate of Proficiency

Disclaimer:

This worksheet is intended for supplemental use only. Please refer to the university catalog, Degree Works, and the academic advisor for accuracy.

Undergraduate Certificate of Proficiency (CP)

The Certificate of Proficiency in Coaching at Utah State University is a comprehensive program designed to provide aspiring coaches with a robust foundation in various aspects of coaching and sports management. This 17-credit certificate program is structured to offer both theoretical knowledge and practical skills essential for successful coaching careers.

Certificate of Proficiency (CP) Requirements:

- ❖ Graduation: 2.0 overall GPA
- ❖ All courses required for the certificate require a letter grade (e.g., A, A-, B+, B, B-, etc.). Pass/Fail grading is not permitted for these courses, except for those courses which are only taught pass/fail.

Required Core Courses: 17 credits

Complete all of the following:

Course	Credits
HEP 2000: First Aid and Emergency Care	2
KIN 2050: Sports Rules and Regulations of the Utah High School Athletic Association	1
KIN 3000: Principles of Fitness	3
KIN 3100: Athletic Injuries	3
KIN 3200: Motor Learning and Technology in Skill Analysis	3
KIN 4350: Administration and Classroom Management of Physical Education	2
KIN 4500: Motivational Strategies for Physical Education and Coaching	3

Prerequisites for Certificate Coursework

Please verify all course prerequisite information in the university catalog at <https://catalog.usu.edu/> and the academic advisor.