

Aggies Elevated program makes college possible for all

03/04/2024

According to the National Center for Education Statistics, 19% of undergraduates and 12% of graduates report having a disability. Despite making up one-fifth of America's student body, colleges are often ill-equipped in providing an equal experience for students with disabilities. Aggies Elevated seeks to remedy this problem at Utah State University.