

USU Courses Leading to the GT Endorsement

Courses listed together are required to be taken concurrently.

TEAL 6420—Education of Gifted and Talented Learners

TEAL 6430—Practicum: Individual Case Study

Meets USBE requirement for coursework in “Education for the Gifted and Talented”

Meets, with 6445/55/70/90, USBE requirement for “Field Experience/Practicum in Gifted Education”

TEAL 6435—Curriculum Development in the Education of Gifted and Talented Learners

TEAL 6445—Practicum: Curriculum Writing in the Education of Gifted and Talented Learners

Meets, with TEAL 6480/90, USBE requirement for coursework in “Curriculum/Materials in Gifted Education”

Meets, with 6430/55/70/90, USBE requirement for “Field Experience/Practicum in Gifted Education”

TEAL 6450—Social and Emotional Needs of Gifted and Talented Learners

TEAL 6455—Practicum: Gifted Social and Emotional Needs Applications

Meets USBE requirement for coursework in “Social Emotional Needs of the Gifted”

Meets, with 6430/45/70/90, USBE requirement for “Field Experience/Practicum in Gifted Education”

TEAL 6460—Assessment in Gifted Education

TEAL 6470—Practicum: Gifted Assessment Applications

Meets USBE requirement for coursework in “Identification/Evaluation/Assessment in Gifted Education”

Meets, with 6430/45/55/90, USBE requirement for “Field Experience/Practicum in Gifted Education”

TEAL 6480—Methods and Materials in Gifted Education

TEAL 6490—Practicum: Gifted Strategies Applications

Meets, with TEAL 6435/45, USBE requirement for coursework in “Curriculum/Materials in Gifted Education”

Meets, with 6430/45/55/70, USBE requirement for “Field Experience/Practicum in Gifted Education”

USBE requirement for coursework in “Improvement of Curriculum/Instruction in the Content Areas” can be met in several ways; including content area courses, instructional strategies courses, gifted and talented education conferences, and creativity. Contact Dr. Hunsaker for more complete information.