

USBE Endorsed Mentor Teachers

Meet Katie Watkins, an English Language Arts aficionado with a teaching tenure dating back to 2014. Specializing in senior classes, Katie's journey in education is fortified by two master's from Westminster University and a plethora of endorsements, two of which include Teacher Mentor and Gifted and Talented. Her pedagogical approach is a fusion of passion and innovation, where she infuses Gifted and Talented techniques to nurture students' autonomy, resilience, and self-discovery.

Beyond the classroom, Katie's world revolves around four furry companions, the thrill of literature, virtual adventures in video games, and spontaneous road trips with her significant other, Gabriel. Join her in the pursuit of educational excellence intertwined with life's simple pleasures, where every moment is an opportunity for growth, exploration, and the occasional canine cuddle.
